Affordable Gem with Ample Garage Space

Welcome to this ultra-affordable home on Holloway Drive, perfect for first-time buyers or couples looking to enter the property market. With three bedrooms and a single bathroom, this house offers a comfortable living space complemented by a generous build area of 102m². Built in 1981, it has retained its charm while providing modern conveniences like built-in robes and air-conditioning.

One of the standout features is the double garage, offering ample space for vehicles or a workshop area. The property also boasts a fully fenced yard. An undercover side area provides an ideal spot for outdoor activities or simply relaxing in your own private retreat. Enjoy the serene views of the city and mountains, adding a touch of natural beauty to your everyday life.

Situated in Herdsmans Cove, you'll have access to essential amenities and local parks. The area is perfect for those seeking an affordable entry into homeownership without compromising on space and functionality. Don't miss your chance to secure this property—contact us today to make it yours!
