Charming first home or investment opportunity

Positioned on a peaceful, quiet street in New Norfolk, this charming 2-bedroom 1940's home is move in ready having undergone recent refurbishments including internal painting and new floor coverings throughout.

The functional floorplan includes two generously sized bedrooms, a spacious living area, and a kitchen that showcases picturesque views. Completing the layout is a sunroom, a central bathroom, and a laundry located under the home.

Set on a generous allotment, the property boasts a lush, fully fenced rear garden perfect for outdoor enjoyment, along with an enclosed carport for secure parking. Ample storage solutions are available with under-house space and multiple sheds.

Year-round comfort is provided by a wall panel heater and a cozy wood fire heater. The level access makes this property an appealing proposition for first home buyers, those looking to downsize or investors.

Situated along the picturesque River Derwent, New Norfolk is a historic town known for its natural beauty and charming, community-focused lifestyle. Located 35 kilometres from Hobart, New Norfolk offers serene countryside living while providing its residents with accessible modern amenities as well as local markets, antique and boutique shopping and plenty of outdoor recreational activities.
