This stately 1920s residence stands proudly on an expansive site. Completely private in a first-class location prized for its quiet and convenience, this impressive four-bedroom home with elegant character presents highly sought-after lifestyle opportunity near schools and Camberwell Junction in Sunnyside Estate environs. A beautiful façade beyond large and leafy garden is secluded yet bathing in sunshine revealing a spacious single-level layout. Ducted heating, period ceilings, leadlight windows and fireplaces (ornamental) complement the flowing family interior including main bedroom with built-in robes and ensuite, family bathroom, sitting room or executive study, lounge room and a sumptuous formal dining room. A central kitchen with stainless-steel stove and breakfast bench adjoins a living room at the rear that opens to a wisteria-covered entertainment terrace with a tranquil rear garden backdrop. Further is a lock-up garage and workshop below a versatile loft-style studio retreat while there is an abundance of off-street parking. This enchanting home is close to private schools, cafés, restaurants, shops, Burke/Camberwell Roads trams, train station and parklands. To
