Positioned on over 10 acres of sprawling countryside, this double-storey residence is a testament to both spacious living and the allure of rural tranquility.

As you approach the residence, a lush expanse of greenery welcomes you, setting the stage for a genuine escape. The two-story abode boasts five bedrooms, each exuding warmth and comfort. Ascending to the upper level unveils a grand master suite, adorned with a generously sized robe, an ensuite, and a private balcony that opens up to breathtaking panoramic views. The interconnected living space on this floor seamlessly links the master suite, additional bedrooms, and a well-appointed guest bathroom. Throughout the home, two wood combustion heaters and two split systems ensure a snug ambiance, while additional features such as a 3.8 Kw solar system, a wastewater treatment plant, and rainwater tanks boasting a capacity of 100,000 litres contribute to sustainability.

The outdoor allure of this property is equally captivating, with an inviting entertaining area leading to a fully fenced pool zone, providing the perfect setting for relaxation and recreation. Beyond the home, discover an integrated two-car garage, a charming cubby house, a serene pond, a functional chicken coop, a hot house, and a versatile workshop space.
