Warm and Welcoming Living Over Two Levels

Peacefully and privately nestled behind an intimate facade that opens to reveal a superb home of light and character, this impressive dual-level residence is the perfect starter for the young family or professional couple alike. With a timeless blend of period charm and select modern appointments, this quality offering is well-positioned only 400m to the Marion Light Rail station, under 1km to the conveniences of Leichhardt Market Place and Haberfield shops and a level walk to the Greenway Park Run.

Well-proportioned with separate living and dining spaces

Double bedrooms, upper level main with ample storage

Modern kitchen with marble benches and gas appliances

Sun-dappled rear garden has level lawn and BBQ gazebo

Polished timber flooring, original fireplaces and skylights

With underhouse storage, picture rails and soaring ceilings

A short drive to Norton Street restaurants and cafe culture

Only minutes to the tunnel interchange and the city centre
