Stylish & Spacious with Walk-to-Town Convenience!

Nestled in a peaceful cul-de-sac, this charming brick home offers an ideal combination of low-maintenance living and modern comforts, all within a stone's throw of Ulverstone's town centre. Situated on a spacious 810m² flat block, this residence is perfectly positioned for those who enjoy a relaxed, community-focused lifestyle. Just a short stroll away, you'll find local cafes, boutique shops, and essential amenities, making this home a wonderful choice for families, downsizers, or investors looking for a prime location.

The home boasts three well-sized bedrooms, two featuring built-in robes, an upgraded kitchen equipped with quality appliances, and a stylishly renovated bathroom with both a separate shower and bath. The opulent open-plan kitchen and family dining areas will be sure to impress and you also have a spacious 4x5m deck perfect for entertaining and relaxing throughout the summer months.

Additional storage solutions are plentiful, with two separate garages, three garden sheds, plus a second toilet conveniently located in the back shed - perfect for gardening days or extra convenience when hosting guests. With Ulverstone's renowned natural beauty, this home is just a 15-minute drive from Devonport, giving easy access to larger shopping centres, entertainment options, and the Spirit of Tasmania terminal for further adventures.

Whether you're a family seeking space, a downsizer looking to simplify without compromising comfort, or an investor eyeing a desirable property, this Ulverstone gem ticks all the boxes for a truly comfortable and convenient lifestyle.
