The Nornalup Dream Located in one of the most serene parts of the state, this beautifully presented home offers its lucky purchaser an extremely enviable lifestyle. Built in 2008 the home takes in stunning views of the Frankland River and some of the prettiest farm land in the region. Consisting of three bedrooms plus a study, as well as two storerooms; the home boasts so much space, and makes the perfect property to either call Nornalup home or to use as your escape from the hustle and bustle when the need arises. A separate lounge room comes off an open plan family room and kitchen - with beautiful Jarrah floorboards leading down the main hallway. A verandah on the southern side of the home is a great spot to admire the lovely views, while undercover parking for multiple vehicles is available on the northern side. A 6m x 6m shed with power and concrete floor, a huge variety of fruit trees, and a lovely rose garden and well kept lawns complete the package.
