Welcome to 23 Cooper Street, an ideal property for investors, first-time buyers, or families seeking a quiet, convenient location. Nestled in a peaceful residential area, this home is close to Lions Park, the local hospital, and nearby sports fields.

Step inside to a spacious, air-conditioned lounge area that flows effortlessly into the dining and kitchen space. The upgraded kitchen offers plenty of storage, while the large laundry room includes a separate toilet for added convenience. The modernised bathroom, featuring a step-in shower, is located just down the hall. Each of the three bedrooms comes with built-in cupboards, with the master bedroom also benefiting from a split-system air conditioner.

Outside, enjoy the shade of mature trees, a handy garden shed, and a back lane for added convenience. The carport offers off-street parking, while the front balcony and patio serve as the perfect spot for outdoor entertaining.
