Best Christmas present ever !!!!

24 Morrison St Kambah has impressive street appeal on arrival with a combination of Canberra red brick fascia to garage, timber fencing and lush green lawn. This is the first hint of what is to come. Once inside you are greeted by a designer courtyard with decking, outdoor kitchen and a mix of evergreen and deciduous plants and trees. The ideal place for entertaining and outdoor bbqs. See yourself relaxing with your favourite wine in front of the slow combustion fireplace. An expanse of doors are to the east of home making the main living room sun drenched. Just the right combination of master craftsman created black but timber accents, and features are throughout the home. From wall features to doors jambs. Concrete benches and designer kitchen complete this space. The kitchen has custom joinery, pantry and ample bench space. All bedrooms are a good size and feature further custom built wardrobes. The bathroom has been fully renovated and has a hand built one off vanity. Everything about this home is high end quality and no expense has been spared on this luxurious blend of timber, concrete and glass. This is something special. Year round comfort will be assured with a new split system to lounge room. A double garage means secure off street parking. This home with suit people wanting something unique in a bespoke master craftsman built home
