Iconic panoramic views from sunny position

Perched within one of the eastern shore's most sought-after streets sits an expansive family residence, offering iconic views across the River Derwent to kunanyi/Mount Wellington, and Hobart's cityscape, synonymous with its Howrah location.

Through a glazed sun porch entrance, warmth and comfort is immediately evident thoughtfully designed for modern family comfort, the home features numerous living spaces across two levels.

Upstairs, a sun-drenched lounge flows effortlessly into the dining room, elevated with bay windows that frame the enviable vistas. On the lower level, a versatile area offers endless possibilities, as a fourth bedroom, or rumpus room, complete with a private bathroom, and built-in storage. Adjacent, another family area enjoys plenty of space and connects to a sunroom.

Incorporated within the dining space the kitchen comes has ample storage within timber cabinetry, and large countertops.

In addition to the bedroom / rumpus room on the lower-ground level, comfortable accommodation comprises of a further three bedrooms on the upper-floor. The master boasts an en-suite, a walk-in robe, enhancing the sense of space and luxury.

A renovated bathroom services the home upstairs, exuding sophistication through matte black fittings and fixtures, and classic white subway tiles. The space contains an over-bath shower, vanity, and a separate toilet. The laundry, with ample storage, enjoys direct outdoor access.

The expansive grounds are fully fenced, and feature an array of trees, and plenty of space to enjoy the outdoors within a private setting. There is ample carport space for multiple vehicles, plus a utility shed.

Perfectly blending convenience, style, and versatility, this property is an ideal family home with breathtaking views, close to schools, shops, services, and beaches in a convenient location.
