Crookwell Charm

This adorable weatherboard cottage invites you to embrace the charm of country living with all the modern comforts you need. Boasting a northerly aspect towards rural land, the home features three bedrooms, a convenient updated bathroom with a separate bath and shower, and an updated interior, ready for your enjoyment.

Year-round comfort is assured with a cosy woodfire, reverse-cycle air conditioning and ceiling fans. The outdoor spaces are just as appealing, with an undercover rear deck perfect for relaxing or entertaining and a front deck to enjoy the sunshine and watch the day go by.

Car enthusiasts or hobbyists will love the double automatic garage with an attached double carport and additional storage shed, with power.

Located on a picturesque corner block, this home is a perfect blend of practicality and low maintenance living.

This home is available for inspections by private appointment and Saturday viewings.
