A Grand Lady with a Surprise!

The moment you step inside this beautiful Grand Old home you'll be taken by the retention of its period features and overall wonderful presentation. Inside the home there's two good sized bedrooms and a fully refurbished bathroom. The kitchen is both functional and well appointed with a servery through to the adjoining dining room (formally used as the third bedroom) The lounge room is a delight to see with it's period correct timber dado, high ceilings and plaster roses. You're kept comfortable with gas ducted heating throughout and a split system in the living space. The surprise is the amazing unit in the rear yard with two bedrooms and a well appointed bathroom as well. What an opportunity this presents for teenage children, elderly parents or room to accommodate guests! Complete the package with wide, ornate verandahs around three quarters of the home, an oversized double carport and a very handy 6 x 9 shed in the rear yard. Finally take a moment to appreciate the stunning gardens and lawns offered by this truly remarkable home. Located in the heart of Traralgons West end a stones throw from schools, shops and sporting facilities. Call today for a walk through.
