Grand Family Residence in Prestigious McRaes Estate

Perched on the high side of Laycock Road, this six-bedroom home in the highly desired McRaes Estate offers the perfect blend of charm, space, and practicality, catering to growing families and multigenerational living.

The elevated position provides a peaceful outlook, while the sun-drenched northeast-facing rear yard features a spacious deck and level, child-friendly backyard-ideal for entertaining or family relaxation. Inside, the master bedroom with ensuite offers a private retreat, and two lower-level bedrooms provide flexibility for extended family or guests.

Character-filled with original features, the home boasts a large front balcony, perfect for enjoying the tranquil surrounds. A secure garage and additional off-street parking add convenience, while its location is just a short stroll to Penshurst shops, station, and amenities.
