Discover the charm of 28 Queen St, Edmonton, a classic Queenslander home set on a generous 1,012m<sup>2</sup> block in Edmonton's historic area. This spacious property offers ample outdoor space for gardening, play, and even the potential for an additional dwelling. Key features include: Three air-conditioned bedrooms, with the main bedroom offering built-in cupboards and split-system air conditioning. Recently renovated bathroom. Modern kitchen with electric cooktop, tower oven, dishwasher, pantry, and stone benchtops. A spacious laundry with a built-in ironing board. A large professional greenhouse, perfect for year-round gardening. Front patio and an enclosed rear patio. Two chicken coops, ideal for those who enjoy fresh eggs daily. Two-car garage with extra storage space, plus additional storage sheds. Fully fenced. This home brings a sense of nostalgia, offering a traditional lifestyle with room for kids, gardening, and even raising chickens. Nestled in the original part of Edmonton, with mountain views and surrounded by nature, it's close to shopping, schools, and local attractions like Sugar World water park. Ideal for those looking to work from home or run a small hobby business, this property truly captures the best of both worlds.
