Please note, inspections without registered bookings may be cancelled without notice. Impeccably presented and awaiting it's next occupant. placed in a location a short walk to the bus stop and Ruthven station and not much further to shopping, dining, latte and professional services on offer in the heart of Reservoir, combined with the easy-care spaces of this single-level home, creates an ideal opportunity for those that prioritise lifestyle convenience and low-maintenance living. The well-presented interior spaces include a generous lounge complemented by a separate meals area overlooked by the kitchen that offers plenty of storage options and preparation space. Three bedrooms, two of which boast built-in robes, are well served by the renovated central bathroom with the convenience of a separate toilet. Stretching the length of the home and linking the house to the rear door of the auto garage, the wrap-around courtyard provides low-maintenance spaces for relaxed living and alfresco entertaining. Other desirable features include ducted heating, split system cooling to the North bedroom, a single lockup garage, near new carpets throughout, a renovated bathroom and more.
