Pure Scarborough!

From the matt white balustrade to the solar power system to fully charge your dreams (and use your aircon guilt free), this quintessential Westview Street townhouse has nothing for you to do other than for you to work on the tan, or give the credit card a good working over at your new local haunt, Karrinyup Shopping Centre. The owners have poured over this property with their heart and soul to to encapsulate the coastal lifestyle and have truly enhanced the liveability and most importantly, the functionality of your new home. Featuring new flooring, plantation shutters, a clever laundry/scullery renovation to better utilise space, ducted reverse cycle aircon, a garage with some proper clearance for you 4wd lovers and a 5kw+ solar inverter for the Tesla heads or lovers of the a/c. The sellers have even put in the biggest hot water unit I've ever seen so long showers aren't up for debate anymore! Together with 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms (corner bath in ensuite) 3 toilets for the morning rush, private north facing courtyard and the lifestyle on offer, 3/59 Westview Street is one soak in, cause when you do, you'll understand what the Scarborough lifestyle is all about.
