This fantastic period home is bursting with character, charm and potential. Starting with the large entrance way you will notice the wood flooring, high ceilings, leadlight glass work, renovated bathroom, three good sized bedrooms, revamped kitchen with stainless steel cooker, wood heating and split system air conditioning for all year round comfort. Walk straight into this home and enjoy immediately or there is plenty of scope for a large extension to add extra internal space. Situated on a huge block, approximately 1200sqm there is subdivision potential also ( STCA). Centrally located close to everything including: basketball stadium, gym, football oval, schools and main street, you will love living so close to all Terang has to offer. Enquire today to secure your tomorrow.
