Transform This House into Your Dream Home

I Present this solid mid-century double brick home, set on a generous 911m² block. Bathed in natural sunlight all day offering stunning views of the surrounding mountains, along with occasional glimpses of the water, adding an extra touch of tranquillity and natural beauty.

The home features an abundance of spacious storage options, featuring large wall-length cupboards thoughtfully integrated into every room. This home offers an open-plan living design, featuring multiple entry points to both the kitchen and the living room, ensuring easy flow and accessibility throughout the space.

Situated on a near level block, this vast backyard offers endless possibilities to craft your perfect outdoor haven. Whether you dream of creating a lush, flourishing garden, a dedicated play area for the kids, or a peaceful sanctuary for relaxation, the options are truly limitless. With so much space to work with, you have the freedom to design an area that suits your lifestyle, whether it's for entertaining, family activities, or quiet moments of tranquillity.

This convenient location offers the perfect blend of accessibility and is ideal for the new couple looking at renovating this home. With only just a short walk or drive from the vibrant life of Sandy Bay and everything Hobart has to offer. Surrounded by both private and public schools, this location offers excellent opportunities with Lords Beach and Nutgrove Beach just a short drive away.
