Coastal Cottage in Strahan - Your Renovation Dream Awaits!

Nestled in the serene coastal township of Strahan, this charming two-bedroom cottage offers an exciting blank canvas for visionary renovators. A true shell of potential, this property presents the perfect opportunity to craft your ideal coastal retreat or investment. With the existing structure already present, this allows you to bypass council planning requirements-saving you both time and money in the development process.

With its quaint facade and charming layout, the home captures the essence of Strahan's laid-back, seaside lifestyle. Just a stone's throw from local cafes, stunning harbors, and scenic landscapes, it offers endless possibilities for those looking to bring new life into its walls. Envision a modern, cozy interior or a classic beachside getaway-this cottage is your chance to design a home that's as unique as the town it resides in. Whether you're seeking a personal project or an investment with potential in a popular tourist destination, this property invites you to make your mark in one of Tasmania's most picturesque coastal settings.
