This stunning and generously proportioned executive brand new four-bedroom home build by the highly regarded Boutique homes, on a sizeable allotment off approx. 557m<sup>2</sup> is the perfect family home and is ready to move into. The well designed floor plan offers high ceilings, 3 living zones, spacious outdoor area with alfresco, the fixtures and fittings are of high quality finished to an even higher standard which means to stone has been left unturned with this magnificent home now up for lease. Kitchen includes 900 ilve gas cook top, electric oven, oversized island bench with waterfall stone benchtop, ample cupboard space and walk-in pantry. The meals area that the kitchen flows on from is perfect for entertaining as it leads onto the alfresco, the abundance of natural light flows so well throughout the whole house particularly in the open plan kitchen/meals/living areas. There are four very good-sized bedrooms, with the main bedroom boasting a huge space, with walk-in robe and beautiful ensuite with double vanity and oversized shower. The remaining three bedrooms all with built-in robes - are in a wing of their own with an open living space suitable for a study or children's retreat. The gorgeous family bathroom and powder room are also in this wing. A separate living zone at the front of the property, spacious laundry and a very large double garage with more than enough room to park 2 cars. Other features include ducted heating and evaporative cooling to take care of your creature comforts; concreted driveway and pathways. Close to the Willows Primary School and Gisborne township with medical centres, primary and secondary schools, sports facilities and easy freeway access, this beautiful home offers an iconic Macedon Ranges lifestyle, and one you will be more than proud to own.
