A stunning newly constructed home that merges modern living with the timeless elegance of coastal design. Perfectly suited for families or those looking to downsize, this property offers a flexible living arrangement with the luxury of two master bedrooms, including a convenient ground-level option. This home sits just moments away from the picturesque enclaves of Balgownie and Tarrawanna fostering a small-town vibe while remaining within easy reach of Wollongong's vibrant city offerings. The proximity to essentials like local shops, healthcare services, and various recreational spots like Judy Masters Park amplifies the desirability of its location.
