Situated in the ever popular Myall Quays Estate, this immaculately presented home positioned on a 700m² block is sure to impress. Enter through the double doors and immediately take in the high ceilings and natural light. The flowing floorplan leads to a hallway to the right housing three generous sized bedrooms with built in robes, the main bathroom with a large corner bathtub and skylight, and a separate powder room. The spacious kitchen is in the heart of the home and offers quality appliances, a breakfast bar and is filled with natural light from the large windows and doors surrounding as well as the skylights. Off the kitchen is a cosy sitting area with access to the alfresco, and further into the home the spacious living and dining areas also offer direct access to the alfresco and yard. The impressive master suite is separate from the other bedrooms and offers a walk in robe, modern ensuite and sliding door access to the yard. Additional features include air conditioning, ceiling fans, irrigation system and a double garage with internal access. For further information or to arrange an inspection of this lovely home contact Stuart Sinclair on 0488 133 998.
