Classic Mid Century Charm Coveted Corner Block

This mid-century gem offers timeless elegance and functionality on a coveted 569 sqm corner block. With four spacious bedrooms, a well-maintained bathroom, a double garage, and a north-facing patio perfect for soaking up the sun, this home has everything a family needs for comfortable living.

Located within the highly sought-after Viewbank College zone, the property showcases classic mid-century charm, a well-planned layout, abundant natural light, and meticulously preserved period details. Ready to welcome a new family or provide a canvas for personalized renovations, it also presents potential for future development (STCA), further enhanced by its accessible corner position.

Just a 3-minute walk from Banyule Flats Wetlands and the Main Yarra Trail, residents can easily enjoy birdwatching, hiking, and cycling in the stunning nearby natural reserves.

This home combines immediate warmth and significant potential, making it a rare find in one of Heidelberg's premier locations.
