A True Barossa Icon

Welcome to Barossa Chateau in Lyndoch where luxury and lifestyle converge in the heart of the Barossa Valley.

Imagine waking up each morning to the charm of French-inspired architecture, stunning rose gardens, and endless vineyard vistas. Barossa Chateau offers you more than just a property, it's an experience and an opportunity to seamlessly blend lifestyle and business with the potential for your very own grand design in the world-renowned Barossa.

This property holds a rare royal distinction having been opened by H.M. Queen Elizabeth II in 2002, where Her Majesty spent 5 hours enjoying the gardens, the art, and a formal Gala lunch to celebrate the Barossa and its fine heritage. Barossa Chateau offers the potential for your very own grand design in the world-renowned Barossa Valley, set on a spectacular 3.64 hectare (9.01 acre) allotment.

Indulge in exclusive amenities, from private wine tasting spaces, an impressive Grand Ballroom & Art Gallery, to fine dining experiences right at your doorstep. Every day here is an opportunity to savour the finest aspects of life.

Beyond the Chateau, you're surrounded by the beauty of the Barossa Valley, with world-renowned wineries, incredible restaurants, and beautiful trails. It's the perfect blend of luxury, tranquillity, and a vibrant local community. Barossa Chateau isn't just a place to live; it's a place to belong.

Discover the lifestyle that awaits you here in Lyndoch. Please reach out to arrange your private tour and make Barossa Chateau your new home.
