Sublimely spacious and stylish in serene spot

Gracing one of Coburg Hill's biggest blocks, this five bedroom plus study, four bathroom home flaunts inspired design featuring three living spaces and a northerly rear garden. Set in a tranquil, leafy locale and complete with city views, the extraordinary home presents a living room, retreat, and a family room under a spectacular two storey ceiling with spiral chandelier. A suite of Ariston appliances includes a 900mm stove, canopy rangehood and dishwasher, beautifully combining with a waterfall stone island, deep drawers and walk-in pantry. Maintaining the flow of the design, yet thoughtfully distinguished by a central, partial width wall, the dining zone leads to an alfresco and the optimally oriented, northerly backyard. Four of the five double bedrooms come with walk-in robes and either direct bathroom access or an exclusive ensuite. A study nook and balcony ensure the main bedroom can't help but impress and the study downstairs has its own external access and is big enough to be an excellent home office. Brilliantly appointed with solar panels and a battery, the elegant abode also has an easily maintained side courtyard, powder room, heating, cooling, security system, ducted vacuum, rainwater tank with pump, impressive storage and automatic double garage, with interior access. To top it all off, the peaceful, family friendly position offers a backdrop of whispering leaves and birdsong, a stroll to parkland by Edgars Creek, buses, Coburg Hill Shopping Centre and Newlands Primary.
