Opportunity Awaits

Ideal located, sits this bungalow style property which is perfect for those buyers in the market searching for their first home, renovator wanting a project or an investor wanting to add to their portfolio.

The large lounge room centrally located has a split system air conditioner and a ceiling fan which leads through to the neat and tidy kitchen space with a pantry, cupboard space and split system air conditioner.

The 3 bedrooms are generously proportioned with the main bedroom having another split system air conditioner while the main bathroom is located nearby with large vanity and shower alcove.

Other notable features include:

- High ceilings throughout
- Roller shutters on front windows for extra security
- 20 x 20 garage
- Valuable rear lane access

This property is well worth an inspection to see the potential on offer as it just requires some TLC to bring it back to its former glory.
