Home Sweet Home

Convenient, single level living and loaded with personality, this functional, low maintenance home is suitable for first home buyers, young families or would make the ideal investment. Beautifully presented and with splashes of colour throughout, the home features four bedrooms, multiple living areas, covered outdoor entertaining and a double lockup garage. Plantation shutters in three bedrooms, built-in storage, jack and jill bathroom and the large open plan kitchen adjoins the air conditioned family room complete the home. Soft, lush gardens surround the home, providing ample space to flex your green thumb, more storage is provided by way of a lawn locker. This oh so convenient location is only moments to the Southern Cross University, Schools, playing fields and the Wyrallah road and Goonellabah Village shopping centres. With the bus going right past the front door, you really do have all of the city's amenities at your fingertips. Reluctantly, it is time for the original owner of this lovely home to downsize, presenting this perfect opportunity to market for the very first time, by way of public auction on the 27th of November.
