An absolute Gem back from the River!

Here is the perfect opportunity for the astute family who love the river but are budget conscious. Set back from the river is a manageable allotment which is fully landscaped with a clear purpose in mind. This lovely Cottage which consists of two-bedrooms, open plan living, has been completely refitted with new appliances leaving nothing for the new owners to do other than to enjoy what is on offer. The 9m x 6m shed has concrete floor lights power and a substantial solar system on the roof. The garage serves multiple purposes for storage, undercover entertaining and a workshop for the home handyman. This property has been lovingly renovated by the current owners ensuring the new owners have years of hassle-free fun. The property is being sold Best Offers before 20th December 2024
