ENJOY SUMMER ENTERTAINING WITHOUT LEAVING HOME -

Blending a fusion of exhilarating design, contemporary presence and desired proximity to the foreshore and water this area offers. This home delivers the epitome of sophisticated coastal living which has been planned to perfection.

Drive on to the property through electric gates to this four bedroom home which is private, spacious and peaceful.

The interior is beautifully lit with natural sunlight and the high ceilings add to the sense of space in the living areas which will capture the essence of modern living, sleek fittings/fixtures as well as a fluid floor planning for effortless relaxation and entertainment,

The living areas share an open-plan layout with glass sliders leading to an undercover extra large alfresco entertainment area where you can escape the hustle and bustle of the city to rekindle, reunite and rejuvenate. The kitchen is well designed and will easily satisfy the family's master chef with the gas cooking and island bench. A chic tiled bathroom to facilitate the 3 double bedrooms with built-ins, + separate living area or media room & home office nook, with the king size master enjoying a spa bath with separate large walk-in robe and tiled en-suite.

Access to the rear yard, plenty of off-street parking, and the double garage has internal access to the home.

Minimal footsteps to the foreshore

There is no substitute for quality and style. If your family is looking for a spacious, comfortable home to give you quality time where you can simply relax and unwind, it would be hard to imagine a better location.

10 minutes to Hobart International Airport, 10 minutes to the Coal Valley wineries, beautiful beaches, and golf courses all close by.
