Situated in a prime location close to schools, parks, and public transport, this well-maintained four-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers the perfect combination of comfort and convenience. The master bedroom includes a private ensuite, while the extra-large family bathroom ensures ample space for the entire household. The fully equipped kitchen features a breakfast bar and generous storage, making meal preparation a breeze. Each room is fitted with its own split-system heating and cooling unit, ensuring year-round comfort. A single garage provides secure parking with additional driveway space if needed. With easy access to reputable schools, nearby parks, and major routes like the Eastern Freeway and Eastlink, commuting is simple and convenient. Public transport options are also close by, offering direct routes to Blackburn and Nunawading train stations. Finished to the highest standards, this home is a rare rental opportunity you won't want to miss.
