Set on 2.5 picturesque acres, this architecturally designed home utilises rich natural timbers and expansive glass to create a sense of cosy elegance and a profound connection to the lush native surrounds. With its charming character, the home boasts multiple living spaces including an open plan layout with magical light filled rooms and soaring ceilings. A large wood burning fireplace offers a warm sanctuary, whilst the expansive entertaining deck welcomes cool mountain breezes to maximise the enviable local climate. The versatile floor plan includes three generous bedrooms, with two featuring large glass windows that frame the spectacular leafy views. The third bedroom, located upstairs, adds a unique charm with bespoke stained-glass windows. A generous size bathroom perfectly services all three bedrooms and has been re-styled with overhead shower, vanity, and free-standing soaker tub. This peaceful piece of paradise offers so many areas to enjoy, relax around a campfire with your family, pick some fresh fruit from the garden, enjoy a coffee with the native birds on the deck in the mornings, or take a local bush walk through the national park. With so much to offer, this property presents the perfect opportunity for those seeking the ultimate tree-change experience less than an hour from the heart of the city. Located within 10 minutes to Dayboro and just 25 minutes to Petrie Train station and suburban shopping. Additional features include:

- 1 hectare / 2.5 acres
- Undercroft provides parking for 3-4 cars, a workshop and additional storage area
- Inviting 17m x 3.6m entertaining deck includes insulated roof and Mod-Wood decking
- Established fruit trees, vegetable garden, and chicken coop
- An abundance of native wildlife call the property home
- Seasonal creek meanders through the property
- Fully fenced house yard for your favourite pets
- 2 x large rain water tanks, totals 45,000 litres
- Just minutes to national parks, water holes, bush walking and more
- School bus service and wheelie bin collection
