Pacific Pines, located on the northern Gold Coast, is a family-friendly suburb offering a peaceful lifestyle with easy access to key amenities. Just 20 minutes from iconic beaches and 45 minutes from Brisbane CBD, it's ideal for commuters and lifestyle seekers, with convenient access to the M1 and public transport. Known for its welcoming community vibe, Pacific Pines features parks, playgrounds, and recreational spaces, making it popular with families. The suburb offers quality schools, including Pacific Pines State School and High School, as well as nearby childcare and tertiary options like Griffith University. Residents enjoy local shopping at Pacific Pines Town Centre and larger retail hubs like Westfield Helensvale. Outdoor enthusiasts benefit from nearby parks, walking trails, and attractions such as Dreamworld and Nerang National Park. The real estate market offers modern family homes and townhouses, often on generous blocks, providing excellent value for money. With strong community ties, excellent schools, and proximity to beaches and attractions, Pacific Pines is a top choice for families and those seeking a relaxed suburban lifestyle.
