Attention Developers

Auction: Friday 29th November at 6:00 PM on site (unless sold prior). Only private onsite inspections will be conducted in the lead up to the auction.

Attention developers: 48 Ravenswood Road is a prime opportunity for those willing to take on a significant project. This three-bedroom home is in desperate need of a complete overhaul, presenting a blank slate for your next development.

Located on a generous flat 921m² block, this property offers the potential for redevelopment, including the possibility of building units (STCA). While the existing structure requires extensive renovations, the land itself provides a canvas for your vision.

Conveniently situated within walking distance of Northern Support School and just a short drive to Launceston CBD, this location holds promise for a future project.

Get ready to roll up your sleeves and come prepared for the auction, and who knows? You might just find your next project right here!
