Outstanding Potential in a Perfect Location!

This well-located single-level home sits on a generous 609m² (approx.) block with a sought-after rear northern orientation, offering an exceptional foundation for family living and future development. Whether you're looking to renovate, rebuild, or redevelop (STCA), this property presents incredible potential.

Inside, the home is both practical and comfortable, featuring a spacious master bedroom, two additional bedrooms, and a central bathroom. A light-filled lounge flows through to the open dining area, which connects seamlessly to the kitchen, providing a flexible layout for everyday living. Further enhanced with a lockup double garage and multiple off street parking via the expansive driveway.

Ideally positioned, you'll be just minutes from the Keilor East Leisure Centre, as well as local parks, shops, and dining options along Centreway. Families will appreciate the proximity to top schools, including PEGS and St. Bernard's College, as well as childcare and kindergarten facilities. With easy access to the Calder Freeway, this home offers both convenience and future promise.
