Offering accommodation that is ready to love along with gardens that stretch out in the northern sun, this beautifully presented weatherboard home - on approximately 586sqm - is nestled in an ever-popular pocket of amenity-rich Cheltenham. Enjoying tranquil leafy outlooks at every turn, the interiors feature warm timber flooring, lofty ceilings and decorative picture rails through the front accommodation which comprises a peaceful formal lounge offering a cosy gas log fireplace and French doors that can be thrown open to the garden. Further on, the modern stone kitchen showcases stainless steel appliances and a very workable footprint for easy entertaining, while a study nook and open plan dining area looks out to the alfresco deck and deep sundrenched garden with a glorious firepit area. Delivering three main bedrooms including a generous master with walk-in robes and a sparkling ensuite bathroom boasting a twin vanity, the floorplan also comes up trumps with a versatile bungalow which can be a fourth bedroom/home office or even retreat depending on your needs. A renovated main bathroom and practical laundry are also offered along with ducted heating & split system cooling throughout and the real bonus of well-sized solar array to help with energy bills. Rounded off by ample off-street parking, the home is located within easy reach of Thrift Park, DFO and Southland shopping destinations. Close to bus stops and parklands, it also falls within the zones for Mentone Girls' and Parkdale secondary colleges.
