Timeless sandstone cottage with a modern architectural twist

A historic sandstone cottage forms the foundation for this architecturally enhanced home, showcasing a blend of timeless 1870s charm and sophisticated style over multiple light-filled levels. Meticulously maintained and preserved throughout, the property's many enticing attributes include exposed sandstone walls, original hardwood beams and an intimate garden courtyard that captures leafy outlooks over the surrounding area. It makes an integral part of North Sydney's culturally rich past and is perfectly located for lifestyle with Blues Point Road's dining scene, cafes, shopping, pubs and harbourfront parks all within easy walking access.

- * A rare chance to own a Victorian Georgian-style slice of history
- * Preserved original fireplaces, timber floors and many vintage details
- * A superb architectural extension and light-filled open living space
- * Bi-fold doors open onto a sandstone patio, deck and grassed garden
- * An elevated position that captures leafy views over the district
- * Upper-level loft bedroom with study space and modern bathroom
- * Smart designer kitchen, main bathroom and laundry area
- * A whisper-quiet street setting with plenty of parking for residents
- * Strolling distance to North Sydney CBD, the Metro station and shops
