Brimming with sunshine and light, the extensive floorplan is versatile and substantial, with living areas on both levels, and seamless integration to outdoor spaces for effortless alfresco entertaining and relaxation.

The interiors conform to a sleek modern aesthetic, with verdant bushland views in one direction and sparkling Middle Harbour views in the other. This home is enhanced with sumptuous accommodation, a home cinema that comes complete with a dumb waiter and intercom system that links to the kitchen, whilst the downstairs living area features a bar and opens to a protected entertainer's terrace that overlooks a giant swimming pool.
