Nestled in a community-focused pocket of Mooroolbark, this delightful three-bedroom home radiates warmth and potential, offering an enticing mix of comfort and opportunity. Set on a 513m² corner allotment that flows effortlessly into a quiet court, this property welcomes you with a formal lounge and dining area at the entrance, ideal for cosy evenings or lively get-togethers. The laid-back family room at the rear provides the perfect spot to unwind, with its open connection to a generously sized skylit kitchen boasting ample bench space, a breakfast bar, gas cooktop, and dishwasher - ready for everyday meals or weekend feasts. Step outside, and you'll find a haven for relaxation and entertainment. The expansive undercover deck, crafted from Merbau timber, is the heart of outdoor living, where you can enjoy everything from morning coffees to twilight gatherings. Descend the steps to a paved courtyard, where a graceful shade of a weeping elm tree creates a tranquil retreat. The practical layout features a main bedroom with a walk-through robe and ensuite that cleverly connects to the second toilet and laundry room. Two additional bedrooms are serviced by a well-appointed family bathroom. Comfort is assured year-round with ducted heating and a refrigerated cooling unit and there's a double carport at the entrance adding further allure.
