Retro Cool Close To The Beach

This immaculate retro seaside home sits pretty on a 529sqm block within easy walking distance to the beach, shops and local schools. In fact, the location is so good the original family who built the home in 1959 still reside here. The trendy architectural features make this home a delight to be in. Once you step inside you will truly appreciate how 'before its time' it is. From the trendy textured walls and glass, high ceilings, funky light fittings and ample storage this home is a rare gem. If you're looking for a solid quality built home this one is fit for purpose. The home has been immaculately maintained through and has plenty of life to live yet. However, if you're looking for a home you can put your own stamp on to this might just be the one you have been waiting for.

The home features:

- An abundance of natural light throughout with ample windows to draw the coastal breezes
 - 3 very generous bedrooms with built in robes
 - Although fairly original, the kitchen is immaculate and features excellent storage, a practical island bench and breakfast bar, electric wall oven, modern ceramic cooktop and a functional layout. There is room for 2 fridges and a decent pantry.
 - Dining room adjoins the kitchen
 - Formal lounge flows to the family room and connects the bar/study area - great for family games nights or casual entertaining
 - Functional family bathroom with a walk-in shower and vanity basin with good storage. The toilet is located separately
 - Internal laundry
 - Side access to the single car garage. This space is powered and boast a workshop – great for the home handyman.
 - There is a covered area between garage and the main home, this space is great for entertainment and would even fit in additional vehicles if needed
 - Concrete pad at the front, great for parking more cars or the caravan
 - Room in the backyard for the kids and pets to play inside the fully fenced 529sqm block.
- Extras include; great original features throughout including high ceilings, textured walls and glass, the original Hills Hoist clothesline, and casement windows. There are multiple storage cupboards throughout the home, a Besser block woodfired BBQ, security screens on the windows and a termite barrier is already in place

This one is extremely sweet as it is, and the condition of the home is a real credit to the owner. You really can move in a start to enjoy it. Alternately, this is a lovely solidly built family home with ample scope for renovation and with the potential to add additional value – move in an enjoy it and renovate as you go. The location is quite and the neighbourhood family friendly. Within walking distance is the beach, kilometres of seaside walking track, schools, shops, cafes, restaurants, parks and public transport. It is no wonder homes in this location are rarely available.

Behind the white picket fence is a delightful home ready for a new owner to love it.
