Opportunity awaits, footsteps to the sand

You'll not find another home that's closer to Killcare Beach than 54 Beach Drive. Owned by only one family, it's finally coming to market; it offers a rare opportunity to secure one of the last of the original homes in this exclusive beachside pocket.

Set directly across from the short pathway to the surf, this home delivers unforgettable ocean views from the dual-level layout; well-maintained, it's configured with two fully self-contained floors with bedrooms, bathroom and kitchens on each level. In original condition and lovingly maintained - ready for you to move in and start enjoying the beach life. There's scope for a contemporary make-over, or you might decide to further capitalise on the level 891sqm block to create a world-class permanent residence or holiday home right on the beach (STCA).

- Rare opportunity; original home directly across from the beach
- First-time offered; last of its kind in this premier setting
- 1970s home; well-maintained with two fully self-contained levels
- Relaxed holiday home; kitchens, bedrooms and bathrooms on both floors
- Designed to function as a single residence or two independently secured households-ideal for extended family living or Airbnb opportunities.
- Enormous level block of 891sqm right across from beach pathway
- Ocean views; savvy choice for a brand-new beachside build (STCA)
- 100Mb/s Fibre to the Node (FTTN) NBN gives the opportunity to stay connected and work from home year-round in this perfect part of the world
- 100m to the sand, short stroll to Surf Club and Killcare Village
- 90 minutes from the CBD to Sydney's favourite getaway
