Welcome to 542 Albany Highway Bedfordale set on a beautiful 5.3 acres of land with lovely natural bush all around way back from the highway, up a long battle-axe driveway so the noise from the highway is very minimal. When you enter this beautiful home the first thing you are greeted with is a lovely formal entry, then to the left there's a formal lounge which could easily be a theatre room, then to the right there's a huge king-sized master bedroom with fabulous ensuite. Moving through the home you come to a wonderful open plan Kitchen family meals which leads out to family entertaining patio out the back. The minor bedrooms are all queen sized with built-in robes. On top of that there's a huge study which could easily be a fifth bedroom if you wanted. There's nothing to spend inside or out. PROPERTY FEATURES: 200 square metre 3 phase workshop 110,000lt rainwater tank Reverse cycle ducted air conditioning throughout Pipe already in place to pump from creek
