Graced with lofty proportions and late-period charm across a family-wise 4 bedroom plus home-office, two bathroom floorplan, this solid-brick beauty extends with a deep dual-zone design featuring a fine formal lounge, soaring vaulted ceiling family zone, and deep and elevated approx 844sqm grounds - with space to park, a garage for peace-of-mind and an all-weather alfresco area in the big backyard to entertain!

Designed to adapt to today's family life with privately zoned master-suite with a stylishly glossy ensuite, there's a mix of versatile double-plus robe-fitted bedrooms (one with curvaceous dressing area and fireplace) and a big family bathroom with more glossy style. With a granite benchtop and prestige appliance kitchen (with dual-drawer dishwasher, 900mm Smeg range and immense skylight) overlooking the spectacular family zone, there's a clever fitted home-office for work/life balance and a choice of a glowing gasfire and stone-mantled open fireplaces to add the relaxation.

Reverse-cycle air-conditioned and alarmed with 20 panel solar to add to cost-efficiency, this substantial home has room to fit the biggest family today, scope to add a family-wise landscape tomorrow and a location to love for a lifetime. Just three doors from the Elster Creek Trail and less than 500m to Centre Rd, this immensely solid home is big on family benefits with Allnutt Park just a skip along the Trail, the station within half a dozen blocks, and Brighton Secondary College in Zone.
