

57 Waratah Way, Goonellabah, NSW, 2480

House For Sale

Wednesday, 13 November 2024

57 Waratah Way, Goonellabah, NSW, 2480

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

The Pinnacle

Commanding in presence and located in one of the most sought after pockets of Goonellabah, this towering, double story family home has been expertly crafted to provide a substantial, stylish family property. Upon entry, the volume created by the high ceilings, the scale of the rooms and carefully selected finishes just beg you to explore. Upon entry you are immediately drawn to move through the home, the hall leading to the open plan living area, anchored by the stunning kitchen. A true masterpiece, the kitchen boasts a waterfall edged-stone island bench, 900mm cooking, windowed splashback and huge walk in pantry, this space is just made for entertaining. With large stacker doors ensuring a seamless indoor/outdoor flow, this one is designed ideally for you to enjoy our climate and lifestyle. Herringbone patterned tiles, LED strip lighting and carefully selected finishes really elevate this home to another level. Also on the lower level is the media room, laundry and convenient powder room. As you head upstairs and into the main suite, the scale becomes even more impressive. An escape to behold, this moody, calm space exudes opulence with it's dark sheer curtains, pendant lamps, walk through storage and luxury ensuite. Upstairs also features three more generously sized bedrooms, study nook, walk-in linen press and an additional lounge room. Bordering Tucki Creek and with a block size of 1450sqm, the opportunities are endless, from a pool, shedding or simply ample green space, this truly is a rare find. Moments to the amenities and with easy access to the highway, this just may be the perfect combination for your family.