In-room Auction: Saturday 25th January 2025 at 3pm @ The Glen Hotel 24 Gaskell St, Eight Mile Plains QLD 4113. Welcome to this classically designed high set home that enjoys a great street position in a convenient location. It is ideal for a family starter home or impressive rental that would bring in solid returns. Situated in a peaceful street just a few minutes walk to a beautiful park play ground, Runcorn Height State school, The Avenues Early Learning Centre, this beautifully presented and modernist property enjoys all the convenience of this location, along with access to heaps of nearby amenities and transport options. The house occupies a land of 546sqm shaped block in the middle of this attractive street, the house is positioned centrally leaving a generous front garden and big backyard that can easily accommodate a pool and entertainment area. The front has a level driveway and wide side paths connecting to the back. The set up offers residents heaps of off street parking, along with secure two car garage capacity and dual wide side access for storage of trailers or vans. It can boast a traditional highest design with brick lower level and weatherboard upstairs. The layout includes a traditional flow with the upper level being home to the three bedroom and main bathroom. It also includes a large, combined lounge and dining area. The back Entry leads to a huge Veranda on the top floor for family gathering or relaxation or Bbq events. The contemporary kitchen with full height cabinets offers tons of storage space, a decent size Kitchen sink, also equipped with a stainless-steel oven, traditional stove and sliding exhaust. A generous size lounge room with timber flooring seamlessly connects to the dining room, which allows natural light and airflow from the back door and windows that over look the garden. Three bright and airy bedrooms, all featuring fans and curtains. Two rooms have two windows which bring extra lighting and airflow. With a mirror included in the master room. The bathroom includes a floor vicinity, shower and a bath tub. With a separate toilet for added convenience. Massive under house space for Cars, storage, workshop and multipurpose area or a potential to add additional rooms either under house or extending to the back. The property has much value to add to provide future owners. Don't miss this great opportunity to secure a ready to move into home that will give you convenience and security for years to come.
