

586 Moss Vale Road, Burradoo, NSW, 2576

House For Sale

Thursday, 24 October 2024

586 Moss Vale Road, Burradoo, NSW, 2576

Bedrooms: 7

Bathrooms: 5

Parkings: 3

Type: House

'Riverside' Luxury Lifestyle Estate

A brand new, stunningly crafted custom built home positioned on an approximately 11 acre parcel with frontage to the picturesque Wingecarribee River. This rare riverside estate offers an exclusive lifestyle and grand scale living with an emphasis on functionality without compromising on design and style.

Enter down a tree lined drive through landscaped lawns and gardens to the impressive sprawling home, meticulously designed and created to accommodate a large family as well as provide additional accommodation in the fully self-contained guest house allowing a versatile use dependent upon requirements.

The sprawling master built home boasts an abundance of light filled living and cosy entertaining spaces showcasing soaring cathedral ceilings, floor to ceiling windows and stacking doors to invite the outside in and capture the magnificent views, with wide undercover alfresco areas extending the living and entertaining options throughout the seasons.

The main home offers a sumptuous Master Suite with views featuring a walk-in robe, striking light filled ensuite with freestanding bath and access to the outdoor alfresco space. 2 additional guest suites with private ensuites, and 2 further bedrooms with built-in robes.

The elegant kitchen offers plenty of space with a wide entertaining island with breakfast bar, integrated European appliances and a lavish Butler's pantry with a servery to the outdoor alfresco space and built-in BBQ. A separate theatre/games room boasts a built-in wet bar and is separated from the main living spaces by a stylish double sided gas fireplace.

The charming guest house offers unrivalled self-contained living perfect for extended family members or private guests looking for a luxurious and comfortable stay with large kitchenette, elegant bathroom, gas fireplace and undercover entertaining.

This striking estate offers room for a pony, or small herd grazing options and providing a luxurious semi rural retreat in the sought after suburb of Burradoo, historically regarded as the most prestigious of locations in the Southern Highlands. The property is ideally positioned only minutes from private schools, bike and walking paths and is an easy drive to Bowral town centre and amenities.