Seaside elegance with panoramic water views

Set on a generous 1129 sqm block in a sought-after side street, this stunning north-facing cliff-top home offers relaxed sophistication. With its retreat-like atmosphere, the property combines peace, privacy, and natural light to create a truly serene living experience. Positioned right on the cliff's edge, every day feels like a holiday, with breathtaking panoramic views stretching from the mountains across the Derwent River and out to the Tasman Sea.

Designed for effortless living, the home features level access and spacious interiors. It offers four double bedrooms, including a master suite with an ensuite, and three bathrooms. The expansive entertainer's kitchen and open-plan living areas flow seamlessly onto the deck, allowing you to fully enjoy the spectacular views.

The beautifully landscaped gardens add to the charm of this residence, while the two large internal garages, workshop, and additional off-street parking provide plenty of practical space. The flexible layout makes this home ideal for families of all stages, offering separate spaces for teenagers, extended family, or potential Airbnb accommodation. Despite its generous proportions, the home is equally suited for couples who value stylish, intimate spaces.

Situated moments from Blackmans Bay Beach, this property also enjoys proximity to excellent local schools and a range of amenities, including cafes, restaurants, a supermarket, medical centre, and pharmacy. Hobart's CBD is just a 15-minute drive away. This exceptional property presents endless possibilities for discerning buyers. Whether you're looking for a family home, a coastal retreat, or an entertainer's dream, this one-of-a-kind residence offers it all. Live the life you've always imagined.
