AMAZING OUTLOOK, TOP LOCATION & JUST FINISHED

Empty nesters, professionals or investors considering building may well change their minds after viewing this quality, all-new view-filled and ideally situated strata property only 2.6-kilometres from the heart of Albany.

Relish the sweeping 180-degree views spanning sunsets and bushland to Albany's, cityscape, reserves, Mt Clarence and Mt Melville and beyond to Torndirrup National Park.

Shopping centres, schools and medical and sports amenities are all close by.

The sunlit, elevated ramp and level access home stands on a low-upkeep corner dual access lot in a boutique development tucked away at the end of a cul-de-sac.

Whether lounging in the beautiful open plan living and dining area, getting creative in the fabulous galley kitchen, or entertaining on the spacious deck, the views are tremendous.

The smartly-designed kitchen offers superb storage, benchspace and appliances.

Just off the open hub is a chic bush view master suite, with superb mirrored and walk-in robes enroute to the fashionable semi-ensuite bathroom, which has a separate toilet accessible from the family wing hall.

This wing reveals good hall storage, double carport access and two inviting bedrooms, both with robes and one with vistas.

The family bathroom is spacious and offers plenty of storage, as does the well-designed laundry, which even has cityscape views.

The undercroft offers separate access to a spacious garage and workshop area, ample areas ideal for storage, and easy access to plumbing and more.

View before you go down the new build path.
