Family Friendly

So much to like about this home in Baulis Court and lets start with the location. The "Richings Estate", as is it is locally known has a reputation for quality homes in a great environment.

The home oozes "family friendly" with its quiet court location, four car accommodation and multiple living areas. The open plan kitchen and dining area is highlighted by a step down lounge adding character to the home.

One of the four bedrooms can be easily converted to a games room, or a large office depending on your requirements. Both bathrooms, one with a spa, are spacious and you will year round comfort with your fully ducted heating and cooling unit.

If entertainment is on your list, you will be on a winner. At the rear of the home is a fully covered outdoor area and a massive carport which will allow family get togethers and entertainment on a massive scale.

So much to offer with a 5 minute commute to Meadow Mews Shopping Centre for your everyday requirements, and a further 10 minutes into Launceston CBD.
