Panoramic Position at the Top of the Court

Proudly set at the top of the court, this grand family residence offers the distinction of 5 bedrooms and 4 living areas, giving you plenty of room for intergenerational living, working from home or entertaining loved ones in a beautiful resort setting.

Grandma and the kids have a choice of their own room - upstairs or downstairs - while parents are gifted stunning views across to Bellbird Dell from the north facing master bedroom.

The panoramic beauty is further enhanced by vistas of the mountains and the pool from the top floor retreat - which could serve as a stunning remote working office, or a picturesque play area for children.

Where the home shines for relaxed living, is across its free-flowing ground floor - the centrepiece kitchen connecting to the lounge, family room and rumpus, and two gorgeous al fresco areas wrapping around the rear of the home. That smart layout makes indoor-outdoor living a breeze, especially over summer for pool parties and weekend BBQs.

Landscaped for privacy with fragrant jasmine along the fence, and sandstone paving around the pool, this is a garden designed for resort style freedom. Hardly any lawn means more time to chillax poolside with a cool drink.

French windows, black stone benchtops, polished hardwood floors, rainfall shower heads, central heating and cooling, and dry access from the garage add to the home's array of impressive features.

Zoned for Livingstone Primary and Vermont Secondary College (STSA), the superb location offers a short cut via Melissa Grove through to Vermont South Shopping Centre, also in walking distance to Bellbird Dell Reserve and Terrara Park, confirming the parkside beauty of this address and its sweeping placement rounding out the bowl of the court.
