Private Valley Hideaway

605 Hopkins Creek Rd offers the tree change you have been looking for.

With the quintessential Aussie bush outlook, and an array of wildlife including wild parrots and wallabies drifting in around dusk and dawn, this single level home on 10.8 acres provides the private, quiet & peaceful location you have been searching for.

Zoned RU2 Rural Landscape and located approximately 8kms from Chillingham's Village lifestyle, 25kms to Murwillumbah, 47kms to Kingscliff Beach and 55kms to Gold Coast International Airport, everything you need is within an hour's drive, plus the school bus goes right past the front gate.

The late 1970's home is freshly painted internally and features 3 large bedrooms, multiple airconditioned living areas plus a large separate rumpus room come 4th bedroom, spacious kitchen, large modern bathroom with shower and bath, and a separate toilet.

The huge north facing undercover entertaining area overlooks the fire pit & wildlife towards the border ranges, making it the perfect spot to relax and enjoy this secluded getaway.

With 28,000 litres of underground tank storage, plus another 44,000 litres above ground and a decent dam suitable for irrigation, you need not worry about taking long showers after a day on the land; There is a 16m x 6m shed suitable for tinkering in the workshop and/or storage for vehicles and machinery along with a 20-foot container for yet more secure storage.

This property has amazing potential and would be great for kids to run or ride their bikes around, have a few chooks and grow your own herbs and vegetables.

The north facing aspect, scenic outlook and total privacy offers an opportunity to surround yourself in nature and make this property your own.
